

MyCIL.org/TSC

Transitional Skills Center

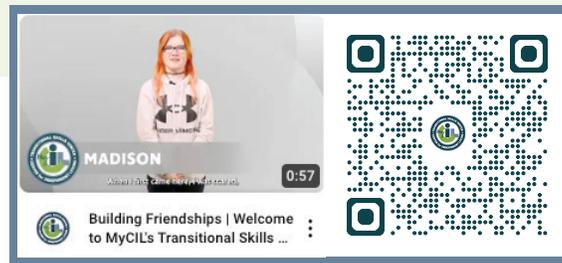

Where Young Adults Discover Their Potential

MyCIL's TSC is a welcoming, supportive place where young adults can develop and practice independent living skills while making friends with peers from across our region. But don't take our word for it. Check out what our participants say about us!

Watch Our Participants Talk About Making Friends at MyCIL's TSC!

Use the QR code below

or visit youtu.be/J9QQjFHtpN8

“What's cool about MyCIL's TSC is we get to go to all places. We get to go to CHOP (child hunger program). We get to make bags for people.”

- Carly Joy

“The main thing I want people to know about MyCIL's TSC is it's a great place. And it's totally worth it.”

- Leah

“What I like about MyCIL's TSC is it teaches you how to get a job. How to maintain job employment. It also teaches you how to apply for an ID and a driver's license.”

- Kyle

“MyCIL's TSC helps me be more independent, so I could live on my own after graduation. And they're really nice and friendly.”

- Madison

Take a Virtual Tour of MyCIL's TSC!

Use the QR code or visit youtu.be/Yi8ldIzYr_E

Contact Sue Sileo, Director, Transition Services Today to Learn More
ssileo@mycil.org | 570-207-9101 ext 20906 | 530 Electric Street Scranton, PA 18509